What is the camper's riding abilities? (Check appropriate level for campers of all camps)
 Beginner: Little to no riding experience
 Advanced beginner: Having good control and balance at a walk and a trot and is working on the canter. Can ride direct rein as well as neck rein and is learning leg aids.
 Intermediate: Is able to walk, trot, canter. Ride circles and serpentines. Knows what a lead is and how to ask for one. Understands leg yields. Has the interest to ride horses other than school horses.
 Advanced: Is able to ride all gaits without stirrups. Can leg yield. Knows when horse is on the correct lead and know how to do a lead change. Can turn on the forehand and hind quarters. Is able to ride a green horse. Very good at solving most problems that may arise when riding.

All Campers bunk down in the same dorm at camp. The girls are divided in groups for day activities. You may request one friend within one year aged up or down from you to be included in your small group. We will do our very best to accommodate each request, but can not make guarantees due to requests received and the variety of overall ages of registrants.
